Students Code of Conduct and college values
Respect – Commitment - Integrity

When entering the classroom
• Students are to line up outside classroom until permission is given by the teacher to enter
• All students must be in class by the second bell

Consequences
• If late to class students will be expected to make up time at the end of the class or attend after school community service. (Repeat offenders)

When in the classroom
• Do not interfere with the rights of others to learn
• No shouting, arguing, inappropriate language, running or play fighting
• Students must have all necessary equipment/class materials
• Students cannot go to locker during class time without teacher consent and diary
• No bags or hats in class
• No blame graffiti removal
• Mobile phones must be switched off in class and not to be seen
• No eating in class, this includes chewing gum and lollies
• No I Pods or MP3 players in the classroom.
• No student to be out of class without a diary signed by the teacher

Consequences of choosing not to follow classroom rules
• Warning (where appropriate)
• Separate (move to another position in the classroom)
• Isolate (asked to sit outside classroom near door for no more than 10 min. or sent to another class by arrangement)
• Detained at the end of class for discussion
• Classroom detention
• Exit to coordinator or principal class
• Mobile phones will be confiscated and picked up at the end of the day by negotiation with parents. This also applies to I Pods and MP3 players.

At the end of class
• Room cleaned
• Students to push their chairs in and stand behind chairs at the end of the session
• Chairs on tables at the end of period four

In the corridors
• No entering corridors during recess and lunch
• No running
• No yelling or inappropriate language
• No card games
• No going to lockers between classes unless student has a diary signed by the teacher
• No bullying of others
• Dispose of rubbish in bins and keep corridors clean.

Consequences
• Any students who breach these rules will receive an official after school community service and parents will be contacted
• Bullying of others will be dealt with through the college’s Zero Tolerance Policy.