

ANZAC Day Commemoration

In-Class Program, Wednesday 24 April 2019

3:00PM

National Anthem

The Ode

(Please be upstanding for the remainder of the program)

The Last Post

In the military, The Last Post traditionally marks the end of the working day. The Last Post is also played during commemorative ceremonies as a poignant tribute to the fallen.

One Minute's Silence

A minute's silence is included as a sign of respect. It offers time for reflection on the significance of the those being remembered.

The Rouse

The Rouse is played following the minute's silence and was a traditional bugle call to call soldiers to duty.

Lest we forget.
