Purpose

To explain to our school community the Department's and John Fawkner College's policy requirements and expectations relating to students using mobile phones and other personal mobile devices during school hours.

Scope

This policy applies to:

1. All students at John Fawkner College and,
2. Students' personal mobile phones and other personal mobile devices brought onto school premises during school hours, including recess and lunchtime.
- 3.

Definitions

A mobile phone is a telephone with access to a cellular (telecommunication) system, with or without a physical connection to a network. For the purpose of this policy, "mobile phone" refers to mobile phones and any device that may connect to or have a similar functionality to a mobile phone such as smart watches.

Policy

John Fawkner College understands that students may bring a personal mobile phone to school, particularly if they are travelling independently to and from school.

At John Fawkner College:

- Students who choose to bring mobile phones to school must have them switched off and securely stored during school hours
- Exceptions to this policy may be applied if certain conditions are met (see below for further information)
- When emergencies occur, parents or carers should reach their child by calling the school's office.

Personal mobile phone use

In accordance with the Department's Mobile Phones Policy issued by the Minister for Education, personal mobile phones must not be used at John Fawkner College during school hours, including lunchtime and recess, unless an exception has been granted.

Where a student has been granted an exception, the student must use their mobile phone for the purpose for which the exception was granted, and in a safe, ethical and responsible manner.

Secure storage

Mobile phones owned by students at John Fawkner College are considered valuable items and are brought to school at the owner's (student's or parent/carer's) risk. Students are encouraged not to bring a mobile phone to school unless there is a compelling reason to do so. Please note that John Fawkner College does not have accident insurance for accidental property damage or theft. Students and their parents/carers are encouraged to obtain appropriate insurance for valuable items and asked to refer to the Department's Personal Goods policy.

Where students bring a mobile phone to school, students are required to store them in their lockers. John Fawkner College will only provide secure storage for confiscated devices.

Enforcement

Students who use their personal mobile phones inappropriately at John Fawkner College may be issued with consequences consistent with our school's existing student engagement policy - see Student Wellbeing and Engagement and/or Code of Conduct or Bullying Prevention policies. In practice, the following will occur:

1st Instance – student is required to hand over the phone and it is placed into secure storage at the front office. The student may collect the phone from a Principal Class member at the end of the School day.

2nd Instance – student is required to hand over the phone and it is placed into secure storage at the front office. The parent is required to collect the phone and an afterschool detention is issued.

Ongoing instances and continuous refusal to comply with the policy – parent meetings will be held to discuss further consequences including but not limited to suspension.

If student refuses to hand over a mobile phone to a classroom teacher, the student is to be immediately referred to the Sub School.
